Public Benefit Activities

In 2023, the IGRA sanctioned ten regional member rodeo events, plus four rodeo schools and the annual World Gay Rodeo Finals™ (WGRF), held in El Reno, Oklahoma, where individual event and All-Around Cowboy and Cowgirl champions were recognized based on their exemplary competitive achievements. There were between 25 and 75 contestants competing in each rodeo, comprising a total of 4,245 event performances for the year. Each rodeo school engaged approximately 10 to 20 new or existing participants.

IGRA held its 2023 annual convention in Reno, NV. The organization conducted normal business committee meetings and convention proceedings, including the election of the 2024-

2025 Vice-President and Secretary. Organization members and supporters were recognized for their contributions and excellence during the annual awards luncheon and four new members were later inducted into the IGRA Rodeo Hall of Fame.

Primary funding for the organization was derived from the production of the WGRF rodeo, fundraising activities of the IGRA Royalty Team, Alumni Project Fundraising, restricted and general donations, and member dues and assessments as outlined in the summary public financial report.

In 2023, IGRA focused on planning for the Road to 2025; Fifty Years of Gay Rodeo which will be celebrated in October 2025.
